eat & drink at mistelle

European culinary excellence combined with a sophisticated, New York-style atmosphere at Double Bay restaurant-wine bar, Mistelle.

Paris-trained chef Frederick Booms and his team dish up Mediterranean-themed culinary delights that turn a meal into a feast! Or if you're just dropping in for a casual light lunch, there's Australian fare such as lightly-smoked Beef Burger.

You can also just have a coffee or other drink. Perhaps you'd like to sample one of the 100-plus fine international wines from the Mistelle cellar. Or how about a Belvedere Martini? Happy Hour runs 5-6 Tuesday and 3-6 Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

The restaurant seats 85 and there are a number of seating options, including ten outside tables, while inside you can eat at low tables, graze at window nooks or at the bar.

One glance at the Mistelle menu tells you that this is a place for serious eating. You might start with an appetiser of four freshly-shucked oysters with lemon, vinaigrette and tobacco.

Then, for an entrée, you might select Escargot en Cocotte (snails baked in little pots, with garlic, parsley butter and puff pastry).

On the side, you can have a Fresh Australian Prawn Salad. Or if you have a taste for something more exotic in the salad department, you might go for the Baby Beetroot and Persian Feta Salad.

But wait, we haven't got to the main course yet! And here a wise choice is Seafood Paella, presented in traditional Spanish style with saffron rice, mussels, prawns and fish of the day. The mains menu also offers sirloin steak, Papadelle Pasta and ... wait for it ... Double-Baked Gruyere Souffle with Sandcrab, Lobster Bisque and Caviar!

By the end of the main course, you tell yourself that you've had enough, but you oblige the friendly table attendant and peruse the menu. And you find your mouth starting to salivate as you study the dessert options- Fondant au Chocolat, Crème Brûlée and Mistelle Tarte Tatin. And next thing, you are placing your order for the Fondant.

Mistelle's owner-manager, Alicia Wadsworth, says, 'We've aimed for 'Parisien bistro meets New York chic and that's been reflected in both the menu and the look of the place. We've got mosaic floors reminiscent of Europe plus the modern, clean chicness of a New York wine bar.'
